This Disclaimer applies to BELL Mock Tests (“BELL,” “Platform,” “we,” “us,” or “our”), an online mock-test and practice assessment platform operated by HEXEL VENTURES PRIVATE LIMITED.

Website: bellmocktests.com

1. NATURE OF THE PLATFORM

BELL Mock Tests is an online mock-test and practice assessment platform.

BELL provides practice tests intended to help users assess their knowledge and practice answering questions in a test environment.

BELL is not an examination authority, coaching institute, educational institution, government body, or official examination preparation provider.

2. NO AFFILIATION WITH UPSC

BELL’s UPSC-related mock tests are “UPSC Prelims inspired mock tests.”

BELL is not affiliated with, associated with, authorised by, endorsed by, sponsored by, or partnered with the:

Union Public Service Commission (UPSC)

or

Government of India

The name “UPSC” is used only to identify the examination for which the relevant practice material is intended to provide an examination-inspired practice experience.

BELL does not represent itself as an official UPSC platform or as an authorised provider of UPSC examination materials.

3. NOT OFFICIAL UPSC MATERIAL

BELL's mock tests are independently created by BELL.

The questions are prepared by the BELL team and may be developed with reference to publicly available examination patterns, syllabus areas, concepts, and previous-year examination trends.

BELL's questions are not represented as official UPSC questions, official UPSC study material, or material issued by UPSC.

4. NO GUARANTEE OF EXAMINATION SUCCESS

Use of BELL does not guarantee:

- Qualification in the UPSC Civil Services Preliminary Examination;
- Qualification for the UPSC Civil Services Main Examination;
- Selection for the Civil Services Examination;
- A particular examination score;
- A particular rank;
- Improvement in examination performance; or
- Any other examination outcome.

Actual examination results depend on numerous factors outside BELL's control, including the user's preparation, performance, examination conditions, competition, examination pattern, and the policies and decisions of the relevant examination authority.

5. ACCURACY OF CONTENT

BELL makes reasonable efforts to create accurate and useful mock-test content.

However, BELL does not warrant that every question, answer, explanation, interpretation, ranking calculation, or other information available through the Platform will always be completely free from errors.

If a genuine error is identified, BELL may investigate and, where appropriate, correct the relevant content and provide an applicable remedy in accordance with its Refund & Cancellation Policy and Terms & Conditions.

Users should not treat BELL's mock-test content as an official statement of the UPSC, Government of India, or any other examination authority.

6. CHANGES IN ACTUAL EXAMINATIONS

BELL does not control the examination syllabus, examination pattern, eligibility requirements, rules, dates, notifications, question papers, evaluation methods, or decisions of any examination authority.

Examination authorities may change their requirements, syllabus, pattern, procedures, or policies at any time.

Users should refer to the official examination authority for current and authoritative information concerning any examination.

7. PRACTICE PURPOSE ONLY

BELL is intended for practice and self-assessment purposes.

Performance on BELL's mock tests should not be treated as an exact prediction of performance in an actual examination.

A BELL score, percentile, ranking, or performance statistic represents performance within BELL's own testing environment and should not be interpreted as an official examination score, rank, or percentile.

8. LEADERBOARDS AND RANKINGS

BELL may provide leaderboards, rankings, percentiles, comparison features, and other performance statistics.

These figures are generated from BELL's own user and test data.

They are not official UPSC rankings, percentiles, scores, or predictions of actual examination rank.

BELL does not guarantee that a user's position on a BELL leaderboard will correspond to their position in any actual examination.
